

Save displayed models

An established model displayed on the WHLM main window can be saved as an image file, which could be used later in reports or papers.

To do so, click on the File menu, select the Save Models as .emf option to open the Save as dialog box, browse and save the image as an .emf (by default).

